- b. A Committee consisting of representatives of the Services Intelligence agencies and State had been appointed to draft such a paper, and CIA had been invited to participate.
- c. It was Mr. Dulles' opinion that a committee appointed for this purpose was out of order and while we would designate a representative, he would only act in the capacity of an observer. In this connection, Colonel [] noted that there was a pending NSC action concerning dissemination of intelligence to NATO which was to be discussed at the next Standing Group Meeting to be held in Rome on 20 October.

[] reported that in the near future a new procedure will be set up concerning travel of personnel. This procedure will center all administrative matters pertaining to travel in one office and would authorize Assistant Directors to actually issue Travel Orders for personnel assigned to their offices.
